

How to E-transfer the Cape Breton Fiddlers' Association

If you are not familiar with how to send an e-transfer, we hope this document will help guide you. This is just an example from one bank, so it may not look the same as your banking, but it will be similar.

Step 2: Enter the E-transfer details

Select your account

Enter the amount you want to transfer

Select Recipient (this will allow you to add the recipient and may bring up a new window to do this)

Via Interac e-Transfer

Remaining Daily Limit  CAD 10,000.00

 For your security, occasionally we'll ask you to verify your identity.

Step 4: Enter the following details

Enter Finance CBFA

Enter the

Leave mobile number

You will only need to do this part once (as Finance CBFA should remain in the recipient list)

A screenshot of a mobile application interface for adding a contact. At the top, there's a header with a person icon and the text "Pick a recipient from my contacts" with a right arrow. Below this are several input fields: "Name" with "Finance CBFA", "Nickname" with "Finance CBFA", "Email" with "financecbfa@gmail.com", and "Mobile" with "Enter Mobile Number". There are also dropdown menus for "Notify Recipient By" (set to "Email") and "Preferred Language" (set to "English"). At the bottom, there's a toggle switch for "Remember Recipient" which is turned on. A large blue button labeled "Continue" is at the very bottom.

PLEASE do not send e-transfers to Betty's email

Betty's email is not set up for e-transfers.

Your e-transfer will end up in limbo and Betty won't be happy.

You won't get what you paid for and you won't be happy.

We want happiness.

Send e-transfers to financecbfa@gmail.com

Step 5: Add security question & answer

Please use the security answer that we tell you to use
(in this example, tradition was the requested security answer)

Include your name, email, and the reason for the e-transfer in the message box.

Your email is essential to include here in case we need to contact you. Interac does not give us your email. Board members do not have access to the email list, so including your email is the fastest way for us to reach you.
